A Letter From The Editor

Gym Crew Back On The Scene By: THE FAT

This issue is a very exciting issue. In it we expound upon the writing and reporting talents of Monkey Boy, give warning of the Gym crew's scary return, examine Mr. Lloyd's response to a certain letter (which I do not recall taking part in any activities which included such writings). Again, aliases are used at all times, and only the truth is written. In accordance to this, I must acknowledge some complaints as to the name of Monkey Boy for a certain person. Many, in fact, seem to believe that Rosanne Barr would have been a much more suitable name. --- TLM

On the morning of October 5, 1995, the reappearance of the feared Gym Crew caused shock waves throughout Ely and the rest of the world. There have been several reports of sightings of the Gym Crew in the Ely High School Media Center and, as a result, panic and terror has spread at Ely. Because of their numerous recent sightings several rumors have been circulating about them. It is now time to acknowledge these rumors and to respect the truth about them.

RUMOR #1: The Members of the Gym Crew are all Communists.
ANSWER: False. The members of the Gym Crew are too stupid and slow to hold any political views.

RUMOR #2: The Gym Crew has attacked and killed a certain evil math teacher and her laser guns.
ANSWER: False. The Gym Crew did attack a certain evil math teacher in the copy machine room in Ely's Media Center, but had to retreat because of intense laser gun fire before they could kill her.

It has long been known that a certain rat-like person whom we all know has been able to travel at velocities approaching the speed of light, but how he gets the energy to accomplish this has long been a topic of debate among the Earth's scientific community, until now. A certain special agent by the name of Mr. T recently witnessed a unprecedented phenomenon. When coming to lunch, Mr T. noticed that Ratboy was bathing in the sun for energy. Through a process known as photosynthesis Ratboy can convert the sun's energy directly into his own. The question instantly arose as to whether the Russians were here to study Ratboy's Photosynthetic properties, but Mr. T does not think this is the case, he feel that this is a new discovery, so the Russians have not had time to find out about it YET. Mr. T also feels that space cheese has little or nothing to do with Ratboy's photosynthesis, although this reporter strongly disagrees.

With photosynthetic power being a nearly infinite source of energy, this reporter only wonders, how long can justice and truth prevail against Ratboy? sadly not for very long.

Scientists study the Klingon Curse Master's bag.

RUMOR #3: The mastermind of the Gym Crew has been spotted and the identity of this person is now known. ANSWER: True. A member of the Gym Crew was seen saluting the mastermind and his identity is now known. We cannot print his name here, but lets just say that if you know the Latin Club sponser, then you probably also know the brains behind the Gym crew.

The truths behind these rumors are probably hard to bear, but they had to be known. Becuse Knowing is half the battle.

Letter Enrages Lloyd!

By: Monkey Boy

Sources have informed us that recently Mr. Lloyd received a letter that was signed by the U.N. Upon receiving the letter, Mr. Lloyd became enraged, as he has told them never to contact him at school. When Mr. Lloyd learned that it was not the U.N. who sent the note, he felt rather embarrassed, so he killed only half of them and replaced them with robots, rather than killing them all. After learning that it was not the U.N., Mr. Lloyd knew that the only ones with enough brain power to perpetrate such a brilliant scheme was the Russians, so Mr. Lloyd quickly sent them running back to mother Russia. One was heard on his retreat to say, "Our potatoes will destroy you all!", a curse worthy of the Klingon Curse Master, However soon Mr. Lloyd found out that it was not the Russians that sent the note either. After which Mr. Lloyd destroyed all of the heads of state of the world, and replaced them with robots. Having run out of possibilities, Mr. Lloyd went after the Lizard Master, who was only spared death when Doughboy made funny faces to distract Mr. Lloyd long enough for TLM to escape, Heroically saving his life. I pity the person who really sent the letter, because when Mr. Lloyd finds out, there's gonna be hell to pay.
